

Analyst / Investment manager

Investment company includes a group of companies that provide a wide range of financial services for corporate and private clients, offering unique investment decisions. The goal of our company is to achieve a high return on capital through working in complex and rapidly changing markets. Dynamic development of the group in the investment, financial and consulting business became possible due to the unique team of professionals with experience in the largest Western companies, able to solve the most complex economic and financial tasks.

Job Responsibilities

- Monitoring and analysis of the market, development of products based on it
- Development of financial models, analysis of the company's business model, preparation of presentation materials
- Due Diligence procedure of potential partners of the company, verification and analysis of reporting and primary documentation
- Structuring of documentation and transaction support
- Organization and participation in meetings with new clients of the company
- Search for new business directions, with the opportunity to lead this direction in the future
- Ability to formulate tasks independently and to achieve their fulfilment

Qualifications

- Experience in the financial sector (Big-4, investment banks, consulting companies, private equity)
- Understanding of accounting, skills of building financial models
- Higher financial and economic (Moscow State University, Higher School of Economics, MGIMO, Financial university, NES) or technical education (IU / MehMat MSU, MIPT, MSTU them. Bauman)
- High level of motivation, the flexibility of thinking, ability to find custom problem solving, an initiative in work, high responsibility
- Ability to work in a team based environment
- Knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint programs at advanced level User
- Fluency in English

Conditions

- High level of independence and high potential for career and professional growth. Possibility to independently supervise complex and exciting projects at all stages, responsibility for the outcome of these projects.
- Motivational compensation scheme, consisting of a fixed and bonus part
- Western corporate culture
- Ambitious, diverse, exciting tasks
- Unique perspectives for professional growth and development
- Unregulated work schedule